

MBA@Syracuse

MBA@Syracuse is the online Master of Business Administration program from the Martin J. Whitman School of Management at Syracuse University. The program prepares students with the analytical, technical and interpersonal skills to take on leadership roles in a changing business environment.

Curriculum Overview

MBA@Syracuse features the same curriculum content as Whitman's full-time, on-campus MBA.

- The core curriculum builds a strong foundation of business principles such as management, finance, economics, data analysis and business ethics.
- Specializations include Accounting, Business Analytics, Entrepreneurship, Finance, Marketing Management and Supply Chain Management.

The Best of an On-Campus MBA

- An academically rigorous curriculum and live, face-to-face classes
- Classes that are capped to ensure a low student-to-faculty ratio
- A dedicated admissions counselor and student support advisor
- Access to university resources and career services support

Residencies

Students attend periodic residencies hosted on Syracuse University's campus and in major business centers worldwide. Residencies allow students to participate in hands-on learning exercises, network with business leaders, and meet classmates and professors in person. In addition to Syracuse, past residencies have been held in cities such as Dubai, Dublin, Johannesburg, London, New York and Seoul. Each student is required to attend three residencies during the course of their program.

Class Start Dates

January, April, July, October

No GMAT Required

54 Credits to Complete

Why Provide Employee Tuition Support?

Offering tuition assistance to your employees means making a strategic investment in your workforce and the future of your organization. By choosing MBA@Syracuse, your employees will not only develop critical technical and leadership skills, but your support will also produce a significant return on investment for your company.

A Flexible Program Structure

With classes and coursework delivered in a dynamic, online format, MBA@Syracuse allows students to

- schedule courses around a full-time work schedule,
- live anywhere or continue traveling for work, and
- complete a degree in as few as 24 months.

A Top-Quality MBA Education

The MBA@Syracuse curriculum focuses on both core business principles and hands-on experiential learning. You can be confident your employees are receiving a world-class education thanks to elements such as

- small classes, averaging 15 students, led by Syracuse faculty;
- connecting with professors during live office hours;
- dynamic coursework, including case studies and interactive assignments; and
- collaboration with classmates both in and out of the classroom.

ROI for Your Company

In addition to helping employees develop new leadership skills, your financial support offers a number of short- and long-term benefits for your organization:

- Because employees can attend MBA@Syracuse while working full time, they will be able to put their new skills to use immediately in their day-to-day work functions.
- Offering tuition benefits can help attract new, high-caliber candidates to your company, as well as provide an incentive for employees to remain with your company for a longer period of time.
- Your employees will network with fellow students in a variety of industries and gain understanding of the best practices being used for business problems similar to the ones you face.

Visit our website to learn more about MBA@Syracuse. We also invite you to join us for a live online information session to meet faculty and aspiring students face to face, experience the online learning platform firsthand and learn more about the program. You can view upcoming information sessions on the events page of our website.